

Educational Resources

PARLIAMENTARY COMMITTEE SIMULATION

Revising your views

At the beginning of the simulation, you established goals and strategies for your character. Did hearing the presentation of the minister and witnesses cause you to change your mind about anything?

1. Interesting arguments that I heard:
2. New information that I now know:
3. Arguments or information that did not seem credible:
4. Changes that I will make to my character's viewpoint (as long as it remains consistent with role card):
5. Changes I will make to my strategy (Committee members):