

The Library of Parliament is a non-partisan organization providing stimulating and rewarding work. We recognize that our employees are our most important asset and, as such, we offer excellent benefits, a minimum of four weeks' vacation leave, learning opportunities to support professional and career development, competitive salaries and more!

The Library of Parliament believes that the excellence for which it is known is enhanced by nurturing an inclusive workplace that embraces diversity, values differences and supports the full participation of all employees. The Library is committed to creating and maintaining a diverse workforce reflecting the communities in which we live and work, the clients with whom we work, and Canadian society as a whole.

Our Research and Education Services provide high-quality, substantive and timely information, research and analysis to parliamentary committees, individual senators and members of the House of Commons, and parliamentary associations and delegations. The Research and Education Services also administers, through the Public Education Programs, the Library's public, educational and visitor programs, which help to educate and inform Canadians about Parliament and its institutions with a variety of tools and resources, including guided tours, exhibits, educational material and print and web resources.

We are currently looking for candidates to staff the following position: Project Officer, Public Outreach and Interpretation.

The Project Officer plans, researches, develops, implements, coordinates and evaluates interpretive, outreach and educational projects, including visitor programs and services, exhibits, publications, multimedia products, classroom resources and web products, to support Parliament and parliamentarians in increasing the public's knowledge of and appreciation for Parliament.
