Statement of Management Responsibility Including Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Responsibility for the integrity and objectivity of the accompanying financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2024 and all information contained in these statements rests with the management of the Library of Parliament (the “Library”). These financial statements have been prepared by management using Government of Canada accounting policies, which are based on Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Management is responsible for the integrity and objectivity of the information in these financial statements. Some of the information in the financial statements is based on management’s best estimates and judgment, and gives due consideration to materiality. To fulfill its accounting and reporting responsibilities, management maintains a set of accounts that provides a centralized record of the Library’s financial transactions. Financial information submitted in the preparation of the Public Accounts of Canada, and included in the Library’s Annual Report, is consistent with these financial statements.

Management is also responsible for maintaining an effective system of internal control over financial reporting (“ICFR”) designed to provide reasonable assurance that financial information is reliable, that assets are safeguarded and that transactions are properly authorized and recorded in accordance with the Financial Administration Act and other applicable legislation, regulations, authorities and policies.

Management seeks to ensure the objectivity and integrity of data in its financial statements through careful selection, training and development of qualified staff; through organizational arrangements that provide appropriate divisions of responsibility; through communication programs aimed at ensuring that regulations, policies, standards, and managerial authorities are understood throughout the Library.

At the request of management, these financial statements have been audited by KPMG, the independent auditors of the Library of Parliament.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Parliamentary Librarian

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of the Library of Parliament (the Library), which comprise:

- the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2024
- the statement of operations and the Library's net financial position for the year then ended
- the statement of change in the Library's net debt for the year then ended
- the statement of cash flows for the year then ended
- and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies (Hereinafter referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Library as at March 31, 2024, and its results of operations and net financial position, its change in net debt and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements" section of our auditor's report.

We are independent of the Library in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Library's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Library or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Library's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Library's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Library's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Library to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended March 31

1. Authority and objectives

These statements provide the financial information related to all the operations controlled by the Library of Parliament (the “Library”).

Formally established under the Parliament of Canada Act, the Library pre-dates Confederation in its efforts to support an informed and accessible Parliament. The Library provides senators, members of Parliament, and parliamentary committees with the independent, non-partisan information they need to examine the issues of the day, consider legislation and hold the government accountable. It preserves Parliament’s rich documentary heritage while optimizing access to its important collections. It also welcomes hundreds of thousands of visitors to Parliament each year, and offers interpretive tours and educational programs and products to help the public understand Parliament’s role in our democratic system and the important work parliamentarians do.

The activities of the Library can be summarized as follows:

(a) Information support for Parliament

To provide parliamentarians with information, documentation, research and analysis services to help them fulfill their roles as legislators and representatives and to support them in their efforts to make Parliament and information about Parliament accessible to the public.

(b) Governance and Administration Services

Activities and resources that enable managers and employees to deliver activities and programs for and about Parliament.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended March 31

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements have been prepared using the Government of Canada's accounting policies stated below, which are based on Canadian public sector accounting standards. The presentation and results using the stated accounting policies do not result in any significant differences from Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Significant accounting policies are as follows:

(a) Parliamentary authorities

The Library is financed by the Government of Canada through parliamentary authorities. Financial reporting of authorities provided to the Library does not parallel financial reporting according to Canadian generally accepted accounting principles since authorities are primarily based on cash flow requirements. Consequently, items recognized in the Statement of Operations and the Library's Net Financial Position and in the Statement of Financial Position are not necessarily the same as those provided through authorities from Parliament. Note 3 provides a reconciliation between the basis of reporting. The planned results amounts in the "Expenses" and "Revenues" section of the Statement of Operations and the Library's Net Financial Position and in the Segmented Information (note 9) are based on the amounts in the Library's Main Estimates, Supplementary Estimates, and have been adjusted to reflect amortization of tangible capital assets, accommodation expense, health and dental benefits expenses and sick leave benefits, which are not included in the Main Estimates. Planned results are not presented in the "Government funding and transfers" section of the Statement of Operations and the Library's Net Financial Position or in the Statement of Change in the Library's Net Debt because these amounts were not included in the Main Estimates.

(b) Net cash provided by government

The Library operates within the Consolidated Revenue Fund (the "CRF"), which is administered by the Receiver General for Canada. All cash received by the Library is deposited to the CRF, and all cash disbursements made by the Library are paid from the CRF. The net cash provided from the CRF is the difference between all cash receipts and all cash disbursements including transactions between departments of the Government.

(c) Amounts due from the Consolidated Revenue Fund

Amounts due from the CRF are the result of timing differences at year-end between when a transaction affects authorities and when it is processed through the CRF. Amounts due from the CRF represent the net amount of cash that the Library is entitled to draw from the CRF without further appropriations to discharge its liabilities.

(d) Revenues

Revenues are accounted for in the period in which the underlying transaction or event that gave rise to the revenues takes place.

Notes to the Financial Statements

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(e) Expenses

Expenses are recorded on the accrual basis:

- i. Vacation pay and compensatory leave are accrued as the benefits are earned by employees under their respective terms of employment.
- ii. Services provided without charge by other government departments for accommodation and the employer's contribution to the health and dental insurance plans are recorded as operating expenses at their estimated cost.

(f) Employee future benefits

- i. Pension benefits: Eligible employees participate in the Public Service Pension Plan (the "Plan"), a multi-employer pension plan administered by the Government of Canada. The Library's contributions to the Plan are charged to expenses in the year incurred and represent the total obligation of the Library to the Plan. The Library's responsibility with regard to the Plan is limited to its contributions. Actuarial surpluses or deficiencies are recognized in the financial statements of the Government of Canada, the Plan's sponsor.
- ii. Severance benefits: Employees entitled to severance benefits under labour contracts or conditions of employment earn these benefits as services necessary to earn them are rendered. The obligation relating to the benefits earned by employees is calculated using information derived from the actual remaining liability for employee severance benefits for the Library as a whole.
- iii. Sick leave: Employees of the Library of Parliament are eligible to accumulate sick leave until termination of employment. Unused sick leave is not eligible for payment on retirement or termination, nor can it be used as vacation. All sick leave is an accumulating non-vesting benefit. A liability is recorded for sick leave balances expected to be taken in excess of future allotments. The cost of sick leave as well as the present value of the obligation is determined using an actuarial valuation. Any gains and losses are recognized in net results in the period in which they arise.

(g) Accounts receivable and advances

Accounts receivable and advances are stated at the lower of cost and net recoverable value; a valuation allowance is recorded for receivables where recovery is considered uncertain.

(h) Inventory for resale

Inventory is held for resale and is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value on a first-in, first-out basis.

(i) Foreign currency transactions

Transactions involving foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollar equivalents using rates of exchange in effect at the time of those transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated into Canadian dollars using the rate of exchange in effect at year-end.

Notes to the Financial Statements

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(j) Tangible capital assets

All tangible capital assets and leasehold improvements having an initial cost of $2,500 or more are recorded at their acquisition cost. The Library does not capitalize intangible assets, works of art and historical treasures that have cultural, aesthetic or historical value.

Amortization of tangible capital assets is done on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset as follows:

Asset Class	Amortization Period
Machinery and equipment	5 years
Other equipment	3–15 years
Computer equipment	3 years
Computer software	3 years
Leasehold improvements	over the lease term

(k) Collections

Collections of books and reference materials owned by the Library are charged to expense in the year of acquisition. During the year, the Library incurred $1,046,441 in expenditures on collections ($1,035,088 in 2022-2023).

(l) Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses reported in the financial statements. At the time of preparation of these statements, management believes the estimates and assumptions to be reasonable. The most significant items where estimates are used are the liability for employee severance benefits, the liability for employee sick leave benefit and the useful life of tangible capital assets. Actual results could significantly differ from those estimated. Management's estimates are reviewed periodically and, as adjustments become necessary, they are recorded in the financial statements in the year they become known.

(m) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recorded at fair value on initial recognition, and are subsequently recorded at cost or amortized costs unless management has elected to carry the instruments at fair value. Management has not elected to record any financial instruments at fair value.

A statement of remeasurement gains and losses is not presented in these financial statements as the Library does not have financial instruments requiring remeasurement.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(n) Adoption of new accounting standards

The Library has adopted the following new public sector accounting standards in the year:

I. PS 3400 – Revenue:

On 1 April 2023, the Library adopted Public Sector Accounting Standards PS 3400 – Revenue. This standard was adopted prospectively from the date of adoption. This new standard provides requirements for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of revenue transactions.

The implementation of these standards did not require the Library to reflect any adjustments in these financial statements.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended March 31

3. Parliamentary authorities

The Library receives most of its funding through annual parliamentary authorities. Items recognized in the Statement of Operations and the Library's Net Financial Position and in the Statement of Financial Position in one year may be funded through parliamentary authorities in prior, current or future years. Accordingly, the Library has different net results of operations for the year on a government funding basis than on an accrual accounting basis. The differences are reconciled in the following tables:

(a) Reconciliation of net cost of operations to current year authorities used

(in dollars)

Total accounts payable and accrued liabilities	5,651,953	3,185,261

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended March 31

5. Employee future benefits

(a) Pension benefits

The Library's employees participate in the Public Service Pension Plan (the "Plan"), which is sponsored and administered by the Government of Canada. Pension benefits accrue up to a maximum period of 35 years at a rate of 2% per year of pensionable service, times the average of the best five consecutive years of earnings. The benefits are integrated with Canada/Québec Pension Plan benefits and they are indexed to inflation.

Both the employees and the Library contribute to the cost of the Plan. Due to the amendment of the Public Service Superannuation Act following the implementation of provisions related to Economic Action Plan 2012, employee contributors have been divided into two groups – Group 1 relates to existing plan members as of 31 December 2012, and Group 2 relates to members joining the Plan as of 1 January 2013. Each group has a distinct contribution rate.

The 2023-2024 expense amounts to $3,821,557 ($3,619,900 in 2022-2023). For Group 1 members, the expense represents approximately 1.02 times (1.02 times in 2022-2023) the employee contributions, and for Group 2 members, approximately 1.00 times (1.00 times in 2022-2023) the employee contributions.

The Library's responsibility in regard to the Plan is limited to its contributions. Actuarial surpluses or deficiencies are recognized in the Financial Statements of the Government of Canada, as the Plan's sponsor.

(b) Severance benefits

The Library provides severance benefits to its employees based on eligibility, years of service and salary at termination of employment. These severance benefits are not pre-funded. Benefits will be paid from future authorities. Information about the severance benefits, measured as at March 31, is as follows:

(in dollars)

	2024	2023
Accrued benefit obligation – Beginning of year	413,229	541,792
Expense for the year	57,854	19,465
Benefits paid during the year	(188,330)	(148,028)
Accrued benefit obligation – End of year	282,753	413,229

As part of collective agreement negotiations with all employee groups, and changes to conditions of employment for executives and certain non-represented employees, the accumulation of severance benefits under the employee severance pay program ceased for these employees commencing in 2012. Employees subject to these changes have been given the option to be immediately paid the full or partial value of benefits earned to date or collect the full or remaining value of benefits on termination from the public service. These changes have been reflected in the calculation of the outstanding severance benefit obligation.

(c) Sick leave benefits

The Library provides benefits for sick leave to its eligible employees consisting of one and one-quarter days (1¼ / 8.75 hours) of sick leave per calendar month. Sick leave can only be used for paid time off at the employee's normal rate of pay when the employee is unable to perform their duties because of illness or injury. Unused sick leave benefits accumulate during the employee's period of service, and no payment is due to employees upon termination of employment for unused days. Information about the sick leave benefits, measured as at March 31, is as follows:

(in dollars)

	2024	2023
Employee sick leave benefit obligation – beginning of year	2,124,200	2,441,900

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended March 31

8. Related party transactions

The Library is related, as a result of common ownership, to all Government of Canada departments, agencies and Crown corporations. The Library enters into transactions with these entities in the normal course of business and on normal trade terms. In addition, the Library has agreements with the House of Commons related to the provision of information technology services. During the year, the Library received common services that were obtained without charge from other Government departments as presented in part (a) below.

(a) Common services provided without charge by other government departments

During the year, the Library received services without charge from certain common service organizations, related to accommodation and the employer's contribution to the health and dental insurance plans. These services provided without charge have been recorded in the Library's Statement of Operations and Net Financial Position as follows:

(in dollars)

	2024	2023
Accommodation	8,926,899	8,645,354
Employer's contribution to health and dental insurance plan	4,301,468	3,442,368
Total	13,228,367	12,087,722

The Government has centralized some of its administrative activities for efficiency, cost-effectiveness purposes and economic delivery of programs to the public. As a result, the Government uses central agencies and common service organizations so that one department performs services for all other departments and agencies without charge. The costs of these services, such as the payroll, cheque issuance and translation services provided by Public Services and Procurement Canada ("PSPC"), are not included in the Library's Statement of Operations and the Library's Net Financial Position. In addition, the costs of maintenance, identity cards, transportation and messenger services provided by the Senate and the House of Commons are also not included in the Library's Statement of Operations and the Library's Net Financial Position.

(b) Other transactions with related parties

(in dollars)

	2024	2023
Accounts receivable – Other government departments and agencies	307,700	889,268
Accounts payable – Other government departments and agencies	244,239	41,064
Expenses – Other government departments and agencies	7,365,305	5,420,132
Boutique Sales – Other government departments and agencies	4,806	7,616

Expenses and revenues disclosed in note 8\(b\) exclude common services provided without charge, which are already disclosed in note 8\(a\).

10. Contractual obligations

The Library has entered into contractual obligations. Commitments for contractual obligations are as follows:

(in dollars)

2025	690,493
2026	516,164
2027	139,214
Total	1,345,871

11. Financial risks

The Library is subject to the following financial risks from its financial instruments:

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that the counterparty to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss to the Library by failing to discharge an obligation. The Library is exposed to credit risk relating to its accounts receivable and advances disclosed in note 6, which are due mostly from federal government departments, agencies and Crown corporations and external parties. Management believes that these balances do not have significant credit risk.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Library will encounter difficulty in meeting its obligations associated with its financial liabilities. The Library receives annual Parliamentary authorities, which are set out in note 3\(b\). The Library manages liquidity risk by ensuring that the total annual expenditures are within these authorities, as disclosed in note 3\(b\).

(c) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest risk, and other price risk. The Library's financial instruments are not subject to significant market risk as it does not hold investments, debt or foreign currency.

The Library's financial risks, and the process to manage these risks, have not changed significantly from the prior year.
